WELL ARMED, SURF CAT WORK TOWARD 'CLASSIC

Well Armed and Surf Cat, one-two finishers in the Grade II San Diego Handicap at 1 1/16 miles, worked Tuesday toward their apparent next starts – Del Mar's Grade I, $1-million Pacific Classic Sunday, August 24 at 1 1/4 miles on the main track.

The Pacific Classic is a Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" event for the Breeders' Cup Classic division. In winning the San Diego, Well Armed already has qualified for a spot in the gate for the new $1-million Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile set for Saturday, October 25 at Oak Tree at Santa Anita.

Well Armed, trained by Eoin Harty for WinStar Farm, breezed 5 furlongs in 1:00.60, while Surf Cat went a mile in 1:39.60 for trainer Bruce Headley.

Another Pacific Classic prospect, Mr. Napper Tandy, is set to run Friday in an allowance/optional claiming race that could be used by trainer Jack Carava as a prep for the Pacific Classic. "We'll see how he runs and how he comes out of the race and decide if we'll go forward to the Pacific Classic," Carava said Wednesday.

Mr. Napper Tandy was fourth in the San Diego.

At Churchill Downs, the Bill Mott-trained Go Between, second to Mast Track in the Hollywood Gold Cup, worked 5 furlongs in 1:00.80 breezing over a fast track Tuesday.

TORREY PINES MAY BE NEXT FOR GOLDEN DOC A

Golden Doc A, winner of Santa Anita's Grade I Las Virgenes Stakes and third-place finisher in the Grade I Kentucky Oaks, worked a sparkling 5 furlongs in 1:00.40 Wednesday morning on Del Mar's main track.

Trainer Barry Abrams was quite contented with the filly's second work back after a freshening at Winner's Circle Ranch in Bradbury. "It was a strong work," Abrams said. "She'll have three more and then she should be ready for the Torrey Pines [one mile on the main track Sunday, August 31]."

Could she possibly run in the Del Mar Oaks on Saturday, August 16? "We'll see how fit she is," he said. "I'll nominate to the Oaks and see."

CLEMENT BARN ADDS ANOTHER TO DEL MAR ROSTER

Stakes winner Vacare has arrived in the Christophe Clement barn and is being pointed for the Grade II, $200,000 Palomar Handicap at 1 1/16 miles on the Jimmy Durante Turf Course Saturday, August 30.

Also set for stakes appearances are In Summation and Satan's Circus. In Summation, who won the 2007 Bing Crosby Handicap and was runner-up this year, will stretch out another furlong for the Grade II, $300,000 Pat O'Brien Handicap Sunday, August 24 at 7 furlongs. As a "Win and You're In" event, the winner will get an automatic bid to the Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Satan's Circus, second in Hollywood Park's Grade I American Oaks, is being primed for the Grade I, $350,000 Del Mar Oaks Saturday, August 16.

SHORE LINES – Super Strut became the first double winner of the meeting with a victory Sunday for trainer Ben Cecil, who had claimed him out of his earlier victory July 19. Delaware Doe followed with his second meet victory for trainer Peter Miller and owners Gary and Cecil Barber Monday ... Colonel John, trained by Eoin Harty and headed for Saratoga's Grade I, $1-million Travers Stakes Saturday, August 23, went 1:00.80 for 5 furlongs Wednesday morning on the main track. Other sharp works: 4 furlongs – Zilla, bullet 45.80 for Bruce Headley, Get Funky, 46.60 for John Sadler and Two Step Salsa, 47.20 for Julio Canani; 6 furlongs – Dawn Before Dawn, bullet 1:11.80 for Sadler, and Magnificence, 1:12 flat for Headley.

ANALYSIS

By BRAD FREE

BEST BET: California Flag (6th race)

FIRST RACE:

1.Carrie With a C 2. Ann's Plan 3.Adarlyn Cat

CARRIE WITH A C will be strongly favored again, second start of the meet after winning a $35k claimer two weeks ago. A 10-for-23 veteran, the knock is that she is dropping off a win. But she was claimed for this price ($25k) one back, so the drop makes a little bit of sense. ANN'S PLAN was not quick enough to keep pace with fast turf sprinters last time, and she weakened in the lane. She returns to the main track, she won a race at one level lower in April, and she figures for a good trip tucked second behind the speed. ADARLYN CAT broke slow from the rail, and also had traffic trouble into the lane, when a close fifth in the race won by the top choice. 'CAT gets off the rail, and will be running late. BELLY BUTTON DAWN is a comebacker with only one way to go. That is, straight to the front. Come and catch her.

SECOND RACE:

1.Dilemma 2. Cheroot 3.Tiz Afire

DILEMMA had an excuse for his disappointing fifth-place finish last time. He cruised up like he was going to collar the winner, but then reportedly bled and lost his punch. After chasing G1 winner Lang Field in that stake, he drops into a classified allowance, and should get a good trip positioned right behind likely pacesetter CHEROOT. The latter has always had a touch of class, and he is quick enough to clear the field while racing for the first time since April. He runs well fresh, can carry his speed, and could get brave on the lead. TIZ AFIRE will be closing late. The lightly raced 7-year-old gelding (4 for 19) finished second in back-to-back races at Hollywood Park.

THIRD RACE:

1.Absolutely Smitten 2. Heaven Tonight 3.Glory N Thehighest

In three of her five starts, ABSOLUTELY SMITTEN has blown the lead in midstretch. So will she blow it again? Her most recent start was her first on this racing surface, and it was the best race of her career. She chased a fast pace, opened two lengths, then got worn down. But now she shortens from six furlongs to five and a half, she is comfortably drawn outside, and should get a good trip positioned just off the speed. HEAVEN TONIGHT had an eventful trip in a similar spot three weeks ago. She had early trouble, was forced extremely wide into the lane, and still finished well for third. The improving filly is likely to be outrun early, but she will be picking them up late. GLORY N THEHIGHEST triple-drops in class to rock bottom after losing as the odds-on favorite in a maiden-50. SALAH'S JEWEL drops after a disappointing comeback loss in a slow-pace race.

FOURTH RACE:

1.Caddymaster 2. Common Trust 3.Johnny High Brite

When he is on his game, CADDYMASTER is better than most bottom-level claimers, and the 5-year-old gelding definitely is on his game. He crushed $8k claimers last time while ridden out, he has two easy works over this track since, is realistically spotted at $10k claiming, and can win right back. Meanwhile, COMMON TRUST is headed the wrong way, dropping from $20k claiming. But he has won at the bottom level previously, he still has speed, and he could wake up against this softer group. There is not much pace signed up. JOHNNY HIGH BRITE makes his third start following a comeback, while dropping from $20k to $10k. STORMIN JACK looms the upsetper, second start back from a layoff.

FIFTH RACE:

1.Warren's Lady Slew 2. Freyja 3.Fastcar to Freedom

The experienced runners have not yet impressed, so this is a good spot for a first-time starter. WARREN'S LADY SLEW has trained like she means business for trainer Cliff Sise. The filly worked evenly in company on July 21 with Dashwood, who won his debut July 25 racing gate to wire. Since that work, 'SLEW shows two more fast works, apparently she has some gas, and from the inside post she can break on top and be long gone. FREYJA is another well-meant rookie. She has decent enough works for good debut trainer Craig Dollase, including a sharp five-furlong gate work July 30 in 1:00. She is ready to roll. FASTCAT TO FREEDOM drops from a Pleasanton stakes race into a maiden-32, while also making her first start since transferring to the stable of high-percent trainer Peter Miller. She should improve against this easier company, if she draws in from the also-eligible list. TRACK MAJESTY showed speed and cracked early in her debut in a $100k maiden-claimer. Second time out, against weaker, her zip makes her a threat.

SIXTH RACE:

1.California Flag 2. Thoughtuknew 3.Faulkwood Shores

Speedball front-runner CALIFORNIA FLAG figures to seize command at the start, and race gate to wire as the most probable winner on the card. The gray set a blistering pace last time going two turns, and weakened after seven furlongs. Now he only needs to carry his speed five furlongs. If he shakes away from shipper THOUGHTUKNEW, then he can be long gone. However, THOUGHTUKNEW threatens to keep the top choice company on the lead. The latter drops form a $60k stake at Pleasanton into an allowance/optional claimer, and his speed makes him a threat up front. If the top pair run each other into the ground, then FALKWOOD SHORES would be the come-from-behind beneficiary. He has tactical speed, but is not quite as quick as the top pair. It means he can drop into a cozy trip positioned right behind the speed. He would be first to attack if the top ones falter.

Del Mar ANALYSIS

SEVENTH RACE:

1.Dancing in Silks 2. Kool Comic 3.Raingear

Based on his dominating maiden win three back, and a highly rated allowance win last out, DANCING IN SILKS is the logical choice to lead gate to wire in this stake for 3yo Cal-breds. The front-runner meets a field in which his only pace rival is a shipper from Northern California, and if DANCING IN SILKS can avoid a duel with KOOL COMIC, he can be gone. If the two front-runners slow it down up front, they can make it a parade. KOOL COMIC is the aforementioned front-runner shipping in after three easy wins vs. lesser. KOOL COIMIC is drawn outside his main rival, and figures for the best trip pressing the pace while racing in the clear. He can win if he is good enough, although the horse he beat last time returned July 28 to finish nowhere in a $50k claimer against older. RAINGEAR looms the upsetter, dropping from an open stake around two turns on grass, to his preferred one-corner trip on the main track. He scored back-to-back sprint upsets in April and May that are fast enough to beat this field. LETHAL HEAT is a girl against the boys. Winner of the Fleet Treat for state-bred 3-year-old fillies opening weekend, she will roll from behind. GENERAL DAN crushed claiming-caliber foes around two turns, and is wheeled right back while razor sharp for a hot stable.

EIGHTH RACE:

1.Let'spickupthepace 2. Tachometer 3.My Man Sumo

This is the last chance for LET'SPICKUPTHEPACE, who already has lost four times at short prices while repeatedly dropping in class. But his most recent start was arguably his best yet. He pressed a relatively strong pace, made the lead passing the eighth pole, then got run over. He drops once more, from maiden-100 to maiden-40, and should beat this lineup. But he cannot be trusted. First-time starter TACHOMETER has worked well enough for his debut for trainer Richard Matlow, and he is bred to win early. The only other foal out of his dam was Wild Baby Girl, a 2-year-old debut winner at this racetrack one year ago (Aug. 15, 2007).MY MAN SUMO showed speed and cracked in his debut; he may improve second time out while dropping jin class. I WANNA GO FAST is a firster with sharp solid gate work here last weekend. Trainer Art Sherman is warming up. DINNER AT JAKE'S broke slow and finished fourth in his debut; he also can improve.

2008 SEQUOIA

IT'S A TOYOTA TRIFECTA.

And it's bred into every Toyota. Like the all-new 2008 Sequoia. With an available 381-horsepower, 5.7-liter i-Force V8, Sequoia boasts a 10,000-pound towing capacity.

Add seating for eight, a three-zone automatic climate control, a rear-seat DVD entertainment system, third-row side curtain airbags and the 2008 Sequoia is a sure thing. See your San Diego County Toyota dealer today.
